

Boarding (Also see Diversion, Left without being seen, Overcrowding, and Patient flow)

- Board patients on floors instead, FEB:17
- Discharged ED patients boarded, JUL:78
- ED policy spurs other improvements, JUL:78
- Lawsuits may arise from ED ‘boarding’ practice, FEB:16

Call panels (Also see Staffing)

- OIG gives OK to call panel plan, JUL:84

Cardiology

- Bedside nurses give vital input, SEP:105
- Chest pain patients in crowded EDs suffer more post-admit complications, AUG:85
- Chest pain patients need meds reconciled on arrival, AUG:87
- Hypothermia has several key elements, SEP:104
- Hypothermia program yields quick results, SEP:104
- Med reconciliation, transfers are key, AUG:87
- New protocol slashes PCO-to-balloon time, MAY:53
- Several hypothermia options available, SEP:105
- STEMI process slashes PCI time, NOV:126

Coding

- Here’s how you can ramp up your department’s revenues, FEB:20
- Improve your understanding of decision making’s impact, MAY:55
- Learn the elements of risk for accurate MDM level, SEP:106
- Medicare sees increase in observation payments, NOV:123
- Tips for Documenting Medical Decision Making, SEP:107

Communication

- Joint Commission proposed requirements on culture, communication out for field review, AUG ED Accreditation Update Suppl:1

Disaster planning and response (See also Flu and Surge capacity)

- ED staff attend courses on disaster prep, response — Government pays for travel, meals, instruction, JUN:67
- Ice storm fails to freeze smooth ED operations, APR:44
- Inauguration seen as four-day event, FEB:27
- Managers generally pleased with results [of inauguration preparation], MAR:27
- More EDs should attend FEMA classes, JUN:67
- ‘Oxygen bar’ eases pressure on ED, APR:44
- Preparation pays off for EDs in DC as millions visit for inauguration, MAR:25

Diversion (Also see Overcrowding)

- Beware of EMTALA, warns legal expert, MAY:51
- ED/hospitalist plan improves throughput, JUN:70
- Hospital diversion scheme draws ire of national ED organizations, MAY:49
- Hospital’s plan — A bridge too far, MAY:51
- Specialists are skeptical at first, MAY:71

Documentation (Also see Coding)

- Good documentation is good for care, business, JUL:75

Efficiency

- Business excellence key benchmark, DEC:142
- ED initiative adds $20M in revenues, JUN:68
- ED becomes ‘satellite’ when hospital closes, JUL:79
- It’s hard to link design to dollars, APR:42
- Is your ED a medical department or a business? JUL:74
- ‘Low-hanging fruit’ a good place to start, APR:39
- Managing supply chain adds savings, APR:39

- Team meetings spur quick results, JUN:69
- The ‘Five S’s’ help improve efficiency, MAR:Online

Elder care

- ED staff volunteer for senior center, MAY:53
- Multi-unit team designs senior ED, MAY:52
- ‘Seniors only’ ED draws raves from patients, MAY:52

EMTALA

- Beware of EMTALA, warns legal expert, MAY:51
- CMS fact sheet seeks to allay concerns about EMTALA, H1N1, NOV:121
- EMTALA most impactful change in past two decades, JAN:4
- National emergency declaration creates H1N1 options for EDs — Relaxation of EMTALA, HIPAA guidelines will help speed care, DEC:133

Financial strategies (Also see Medicare and Reimbursement)

- Can FQHCs in EDs really be successful, SEP:99
- IRS eyes nonprofits — EDs can play key role, SEP:100
- Systems ponder placing federally qualified clinics within EDs of hospitals, SEP:97
- Teach staff about not-for-profits, SEP:101
- Team meetings spur quick results, JUN:69

Flu (Also see Infection control)

- ACEP releases H1N1 strategic plan, AUG:92
- EDs not taking chances with H1N1, JUN:62
- Here are some tips for media relations, SEP:103
- H1N1 timeline, JUN:Online: Suppl:2
- Learn differentiation steps for H1N1, SEP:103
- National emergency declaration creates H1N1 options for EDs — Relaxation of EMTALA, HIPAA guidelines will help speed care, DEC:133

When looking for information on a specific topic, back issues of ED Management may be useful. If you haven’t activated your online subscription yet so that you can view back issues, go to www.ahcmedia.com. On the left side of the page, click on “activate your subscription.” You will need your subscriber number from your mailing label. Or contact our customer service department at P.O. Box 740060, Atlanta, GA 30374. Telephone: (800) 688-2421 or (404) 262-5476. Fax: (800) 284-3291 or (404) 262-5560. E-mail: customerservice@ahcmedia.com.

Some EDs fell short in H1N1 outbreak, SEP:102
Tents expand capacity of peds hospital's ED, DEC:136
WHO issues H1N1 patient care checklist, AUG:93
Will pandemic keep staff home, JUN:63
With H1N1 vaccine shortage expected, highest-risk groups go to front of line, OCT:Online
2009 H1N1/Swine Flu — Anatomy of an Outbreak, JUN Suppl:1

Health care reform

Will reform make things even worse for EDs? DEC:136

HIV/AIDS

ED crafts own HIV test program, JUL:81
Rapid HIV testing can impact initial treatment, JUL:82

Infection control (Also see Flu and HIV/AIDS)

Deadline nears for HAI NPSG, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:4
Influenza seasonal and H1N1, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:online
New monograph helps examine hand hygiene, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:4

Joint Commission

A safety culture key to reducing errors, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
Audits help manager track compliance, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
Deadline nears for HAI NPSG, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:4
ENA study cites barriers to NPSG compliance, APR:45
Joint Commission proposed requirements on culture, communication out for field review, AUG ED Accreditation Update Suppl:1
Joint Commission report shows gains in safety, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:4
Joint Commission suggests patient safety actions, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
Joint Commission Sentinel Event Alert, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
Joint Commission urges these preventive actions, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2

Know the key areas of safety improvement, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:4
Multidisciplined group provides safe passage, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
New ED processes remove barriers, APR:46
New monograph helps examine hand hygiene, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:4
No new NPSGs, but no time for EDs to relax, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
Poor IT implementation teaches hard lessons, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
Preparation can help avoid IT problems, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
Safety and silos don't mix, asserts TJC, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:1
Sentinel Event Alert: IT implementation has inherent safety risks, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:1
SII simplifies language, structure of standards, AUG ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
Standards on verbal orders rank high among common compliance problems, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:1
TJC changes policy on med reconciliation, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
TJC to improve top 4 challenging requirements, AUG:94
TJC participates in safety alliance, AUG:94
TJC suggests patient safety actions, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
Two EPs may be better than one, AUG ED Accreditation Update Suppl:4
Understand the intent of NPSGs, APR:47
Verbal orders placed in new chapter, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
What does TJC want from ED managers, AUG ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
What should EDs do while TJC re-evaluates, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3

Left without being seen (Also see Diversion, Length of Stay, Patient Flow, and Patient Satisfaction)

Care Initiation Area yields dramatic results, MAR:28
Don't hide your light, share success with board, MAR:29
Kaizen methodology means rapid improvements, MAR:29

Length of stay (Also see Diversion, Left without being seen, Overcrowding, Patient flow, and Patient satisfaction)

D-to-D time clashed 85% — in seven weeks! AUG:80
ED/hospitalist plan improves throughput, JUN:70
ED slashes average wait time by more than an hour, MAR:30
ED team goes 'Back to school,' MAR:32
ED's turnaround time cut by almost 30 minutes, MAR:32
Inservice given for new protocol, MAY:54
New protocol slashes PCI-to-balloon time, MAY:53
Process changes cut LOS by 100 minutes, SEP:99
'Quick look' starts rapid flow process, MAR:31
Specialists are skeptical at first, JUN:71
Staffing critical to help speed flow, MAR:31
The 'Five S's' help improve efficiency, MAR:Online

Liability

Admit mistakes, show your concern, OCT:116
Could giving 'unequal' care to inpatients get you sued, FEB:17
Culture change can reduce risk, OCT:114
Do's and Don'ts for physicians who are sued, AUG:92
ED managers must dig beneath the surface, OCT:109
Education may not be enough, OCT:113
Get at root causes to reduce risk, OCT:112
EDs must learn from the past, JAN:5
Lawsuits may arise from ED 'boarding' practice, FEB:16
Nursing best practices can minimize complaints, OCT:115
'Ounce of prevention' can help avoid suits, OCT:111

- Patient advocates are ‘first line of defense,’ OCT:117
- Personal communications can be discoverable, AUG:92
- Patient satisfaction is a best practice, OCT:114
- Physician & PA Alert, OCT:Online
- Seek out aids to risk prevention, OCT:115
- Some handoff issues raise risks for malpractice suits, NOV:130
- There is no ‘I’ in ED team care, MAR:34
- Tips to succeed in getting sued, MAY:57
- ‘Unwinnable’ case holds lessons for ED managers, MAR:33
- What are the biggest risks involving ED handoffs? NOV:128
- Mental health
- Mental health system adds to ED burden, JAN:6
- Medicare (Also see Reimbursement)
- Don’t wait for CMS to move, EDs told, JAN:11
- Medicare sees increase in observation payments, NOV:123
- Proposed OPSS rule offers 1%-2% pay updates, AUG:94
- Medication errors (Also see Patient Safety)
- A safety culture key to reducing errors, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
- Chest pain patients need meds reconciled on arrival, AUG:87
- Med reconciliation, transfers are key, AUG:87
- Poor IT implementation teaches hard lessons, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
- Sentinel Event Alert*: IT implementation has inherent safety risks, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:1
- TJC changes policy on med reconciliation, MAY ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
- Outlook
- Economy predicted to put more pressure on EDs, JAN:6
- EDs will focus on critical care, JAN:3
- Experts unsure new administration will help EDs, JAN:8
- Rationing: The 800-lb. gorilla in the room, JAN:9
- Strenuous times seen for ED managers, JAN:8
- Things may get better before they get worse, JAN:3
- You may have to wait for that new equipment, JAN:8
- Overcrowding (Also see Diversion, Left without being seen, Nonemergent ED visits, and Patient flow)
- Chest pain patients in crowded EDs suffer more post-admit complications, AUG:85
- Crowding from boarding can harm patients, FEB:16
- Patient education
- Patient education program slashes ED readmission, APR:42
- Teaching is customized for each ED patient, APR:43
- ‘Virtual teacher’ added to program, APR:43
- Education reduces peds asthma readmits, AUG:89
- Patient flow (Also see Diversion, Flu, Left without being seen, Length of stay, Nonemergent ED visits, and Overcrowding)
- D-to-D slashed 85% — in seven weeks, AUG:90
- Discharge unit can speed patient flow, FEB:19
- ED/hospitalist plan improves throughput, JUN:70
- ED managers have ‘anti-crowding’ tools, DEC:137
- ED slashes average wait time by more than an hour, MAR:30
- Low-cost strategies help improve flow, NOV:124
- Make a strong case for discharge unit, FEB:20
- Off-site meetings yield solution, NOV:126
- ‘Quick look’ starts rapid flow process, MAR:31
- Redesign helps ED improve patient flow, APR:41
- Staffing critical to help speed flow, MAR:31
- Specialists are skeptical at first, JUN:71
- Unit can be created with small investment, FEB:19
- Patient safety (Also see Medication Errors and Liability)
- A safety culture key to reducing errors, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
- Bedside nurses give vital input, SEP:106
- Chest pain patients in crowded EDs suffer more post-admit complications, AUG:85
- Chest pain patients need meds reconciled on arrival, AUG:87
- ED crafts own HIV test program, JUL:81
- ENA study cites barriers to NPSG compliance, APR:45
- Hypothermia has several key elements, SEP:104
- Hypothermia program yields quick results, SEP:104
- Know the key areas of safety improvement, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:4
- Med reconciliation, transfers are key, AUG:87
- Multidisciplinary group provides ‘safe passage,’ NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
- New ED processes remove barriers, APR:46
- No new NPSGs, but no time for EDs to relax, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
- Rapid HIV testing can impact initial treatment, JUL:82
- Safety and silos don’t mix, asserts TJC, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:1
- Sentinel Event Alert*: IT implementation has inherent safety risks, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:1
- Several hypothermia options available, SEP:105
- TJC participates in safety alliance, AUG:94
- TJC suggests patient safety actions, NOV ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
- Understand the intent of NPSGs, APR:47
- Patient satisfaction (Also see Left without being seen)
- ED director responds to patient complaints, FEB:23
- ‘Little things’ foster connection with patients, MAY:59
- Nursing Best Practices Can Minimize Complaints, OCT:115
- Patient satisfaction is a best practice, OCT:114
- Staff involvement key to satisfaction gains, FEB:22

Pediatric EDs/patients

Education reduces peds asthma readmits, AUG:89
Follow-up critical for peds asthma, AUG:90
Tents expand capacity of peds hospital's ED, DEC:136

Quality of care

Bedside nurses give vital input, SEP:106
Do EDs underutilize MET stones therapy? DEC:139
Don't hide your light, share success with board, MAR:29
ED-centric approach earns hospital award, DEC:140
ED initiative adds $20M in revenues — Lower LWBS rate, volume bring benefits, JUN:68
ED team goes 'back to school,' MAR:32
Government funds support program, JUL:81
Great strides made in patient care, JAN:4
Housing homeless reduces readmits, JUL:80
Hypothermia has several key elements, SEP:104
Hypothermia program yields quick results, SEP:104
Kaizen methodology means rapid changes, MAR:29
National Voluntary Consensus Standards for Hospital-based ED Care, JAN:10
Several hypothermia options available, SEP:105
Standards endorsed to boost efficiency, quality, JAN:9
The Five S's helps improve efficiency, MAR:33
When is MET appropriate? DEC:140
Why don't more EDs use MET therapy? DEC:140

Reimbursement (Also see Financial strategies and Medicare)

IRS eyes nonprofits — EDs can play key role, SEP:100

Salary

Salaries of ED managers stop climbing, JAN 2008 Salary Survey Results Suppl:1
Graphic: What is your annual gross income from your primary health-care position? JAN 2008 Salary Survey Results Suppl:1

Graphic: In the last year, how has your salary changed? JAN 2008 Salary Survey Results Suppl:2

Graphic: How long have you worked in your present field? JAN 2008 Salary Survey Results Suppl:2

Graphic: In the past year, how has the number of employees in your department changed? JAN 2008 Salary Survey Results Suppl:3

Scribes (Also see Call panels and Staffing)

ED leader: Scribes have many benefits, APR:40
E Square adult template procedure, JUL:Online
Expanded scribe role boosts staff morale, JUL:75
Scribes, EMR please docs, save $600,000, OCT:117
Scribes help avoid expense of hiring PAs, APR:40
Scribes improve compliance with core measures, JUL:77
Scribes receive extensive training, JUL:77
Simple technology for complex work, OCT:118
Templates help organize care, JUL:77

Staff education

ED staff attend courses on disaster prep, response — Government pays for travel, meals, instruction, JUN:67
Education may not be enough, OCT:113
Education needed for STEMI program, NOV:127
Education reduces peds asthma readmits, AUG:89
Inservice given for new protocol, MAY:54
More EDs should attend FEMA classes, JUN:67
Program requires training, equipment, DEC:138
Teach staff about not-for-profits, SEP:101

Staffing (Also see Call panels and Scribes)

Bedside nurses give vital input, SEP:105
ED leader: Scribes have many benefits, APR:40
Patient advocates are 'first line of defense,' OCT:117

Staffing changes save ED more than $200K a year, JUN:66
Staffing strategies help ED save more than $1 million a year, APR:38

Staff satisfaction

ED practices 'golden rule' with hospital staff, AUG:87

Stroke

Program requires training, equipment, DEC:138
Telemedicine extends stroke experts' 'REACH,' DEC:138

Surge capacity (Also see Disaster planning and response)

Community clinics help meet surge, NOV:123
Don't forget the individual patient, JUN:65
Implications seen for ED staffs, JUN:65
Inauguration seen as four-day event, MAR:27
Managers generally pleased with results, MAR:27
Tents expand capacity of peds hospital ED, DEC:136
Preparation pays off for EDs in DC, MAR:25
'Reverse triage' adds to surge capacity, JUN:64

Technology (Also see Telemedicine and Outlook)

Poor IT implementation teaches hard lessons, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:3
Preparation can help avoid IT problems, FEB ED Accreditation Update Suppl:2
Simple technology for complex work, OCT:118
Technology will have major influence on future EDs, JAN:1

Telemedicine (Also see Technology and Outlook)

Are 'Televisits' a threat to EDs, FEB:15
Is telemedicine too limited for ED use, FEB:15
Rochester study shows telemedicine could reduce pediatric visits, FEB:14
Telemedicine extends stroke experts' 'REACH,' DEC:138